KNOCKOUT AND GENERAL MEETING

The next round of the knockout competition will be held on December the 4th at the Scottish Auditorium, 12th and Fir, Vancouver. The general meeting will start at 8:00 p.m. SHARP.

The match-ups in the contest feature Robbie McNeil playing Jim Troy, Pauline Alakija taking on Alison Palmer and Owen Reid against Bruce Gandy.

This month's guest band will be the S.F.U. Pipes and Drums led by P/M Terry Lee and Drum Sgt. Davie Bruce. Once again it promises to be a good night.

NOVEMBER KNOCKOUT

The first monthly meeting of the season was held on Friday, November the 5th at the Scottish Auditorium. One of the largest crowds in recent memory was on hand to enjoy a fine evening of piping, and to honour Jack Lee, Gold Medalist at Inverness this year. Mr. Bill Lamont presented Jack with a Life Membership in the B.C. Pipers' Association, after which the audience was treated to a selection by Jack. Included in the recital were Jack's prize winning tunes in the MSR competition at Inverness.

The first round of the knockout featured Angus MacPherson playing against Jill Lawrie, and Jim Stewart competing with Bill Heaton. Angus was successful in the first contest with Jill unfortunately breaking down. Jim Stewart was declared the winner in the second match against Bill who had journeyed from Seattle that evening. The featured guests for the evening were the Triumph Street Pipe Band who delighted the audience with a very entertaining medley.

The rest of the evening was devoted to impromptu, a traditional part of the knockouts that has been missing in recent months. Jack Lee obliged once again playing for the Gay Gordons and for a rousing jig danced by Mary Munroe, another of our "home-grown" champions.

Piping selections were given by Jimmy Wilson, Rob Menzies, Angus MacPherson and Peter Aumonier. All in all, a very enjoyable evening. See you next month!
