PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

On behalf of the Board of Directors and membership of the British Columbia Pipers' Association, I want to extend a warm welcome to our participants and guests at this weekend's event, our 82nd Annual Gathering.

With this Annual Gathering we return to a venue south of the Fraser River for the first time in many years and closer to the population centre of the Association. We have also made changes to the events schedule to better address the needs of our competitors.

We continue advancements to improve the Annual Gathering and it is a tribute to the Annual Gathering Organizing Committee members for their tremendous efforts to ensure its success.

However, it is because of you, the competitors, spectators and patrons, that the Annual Gathering has endured and become what its title means, an annual gathering of the piping and drumming community for competition and camaraderie.

We would also like to acknowledge the competitors and adjudicators who have traveled to be here with us. Your talents are greatly appreciated and you are providing us with an opportunity to reacquaint with and make new friends.

We hope everyone attending will enjoy the events this weekend, and will return again next year.

The MacCrimmon Memorial Cairn trophy design was inspired by a 1930's memorial cairn at Borreraig, Skye, on the site where it is believed that the MacCrimmon piping college of piobaireachd had existed. Rod MacLeod and Ed Esson envisaged the idea of a miniature replica of the MacCrimmon Cairn as the trophy for the Open Piobaireachd at the Annual Gathering. Jeweller O.B. Allan undertook the task and this near stone-for-stone replica of the Cairn was hammered out from a flat sheet of sterling silver to become the much-treasured award it has grown to be through the years.

Awarded with the Cairn is the MacCrimmon Memorial medal.
